

Corporate & Business Partner Opportunities

There are several ways your company can partner with Grow Pittsburgh to improve food access, provide workforce development, & increase garden education for 40,000+ people in our community. Here are ideas to inspire you to get involved.

“Through a multi-year partnership and volunteer efforts with Grow Pittsburgh, FedEx has realized our purpose of connecting people and possibilities. We are proud to support Grow Pittsburgh’s equitable approach to on-farm training programming which enables urban youth to learn to grow, harvest and enjoy farm fresh produce.”

—Kimberly Olivito, FedEx

“Pittsburgh isn’t just where we work, it’s where we live and raise our families too. We always look forward to our employee volunteer days at Grow Pittsburgh’s farm locations and the unique opportunity it provides to truly empower our communities.”

—Allie Farabaugh, Dollar Bank

“Partnering with Grow Pittsburgh this year has been really rewarding! We brought a group to Braddock Farms for our GoogleServe volunteer day to see their operations up close. It’s been great to introduce Googlers to an organization that’s basically in our backyard and I hope we can continue supporting Grow Pittsburgh in the future!”

—Mike Mazzullo, Google

Tax credit programs

Grow Pittsburgh participates in PA’s Neighborhood Assistance Program (NAP) and Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) program. Please let us know if you are interested in learning more about or participating in these programs!

Our mission is to teach people how to grow food and to promote the benefits gardens bring to our neighborhoods.

1. WE GROW AND DISTRIBUTE AFFORDABLE FRESH FOOD through our farm stands in low-income neighborhoods.

2. WE TEACH PEOPLE HOW TO GROW FOOD

through workforce development, teacher trainings, resource sharing, and garden workshops.

3. WE BUILD AND SUPPORT GARDENS

for preK-12 schools and communities throughout Allegheny County, adding to and sustaining our network of 100+ gardens.

Looking for something specific?

We're happy to customize opportunities to meet your organization's needs.

Chef in the Garden:
Sponsor a garden produce cooking lesson by providing supplies and a chef to a local school! Your organization can also provide their own chef.

Throw an Event for Us:
Sponsor a farm to table dinner, happy hour, or get together to support Grow Pittsburgh and introduce your staff and stakeholders to our work.

Gas Mileage for Farm Stand Deliveries: Add your logo to the Grow Pittsburgh van and cover the fuel for Grow Pittsburgh's seedling and produce deliveries across the city.

In-Kind Donations of Tools or Growing Supplies: Reach out to discuss in-kind donations. We regularly need installation expertise for fencing and help sourcing high-quality lumber, potting soil, & other resources.
