

Grow Pittsburgh Workshare Instructions and Application

What is workshare?

- Grow Pittsburgh Workshare provides fresh, farm-grown produce in exchange for time worked with our Braddock Farms or Shiloh Farm teams.
- Volunteers commit to at least 4 hours a week, for 25 weeks (May 15-November 1), helping with: preparing fields, plantings, cultivation, harvesting and packaging crops to be distributed in the communities surrounding our farms at both farm stands, donations to local groups, and restaurant sales.
- Volunteers receive a weekly CSA share of our produce in exchange for 4 hours of help.
- Participants gain valuable experience working side by side with Grow Pittsburgh Farmers

Requirements?

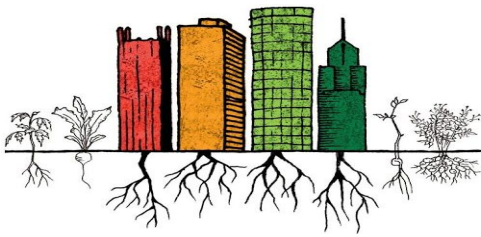

- Must be 18 years or older (we have other opportunities for younger people)
- Volunteers must be prepared to work outside in all types of weather including heat and rain, where you'll be on your feet and moving for hours at a time.
- Requires bending, kneeling, squatting, or lifting loads up to 40 lbs.
- Workshare opportunities are limited in number and require a contract to be signed in advance.

Schedule - Shifts wanted: (optimal times listed below; other schedules can be accomodated, if necessary, 8am to 5pm only)
