

Urban Farm Apprenticeship Application

General Apprenticeship Description

Grow Pittsburgh is a non-profit organization with a mission to teach people how to grow food and promote the benefits that gardens bring to our neighborhoods. At Grow Pittsburgh's production sites, we grow seedlings, vegetables, and fruits naturally without synthetic pesticides or fertilizers. The produce is sold to the community through a seasonal farm stand and to restaurants in the Pittsburgh area.

The apprentice will learn varied aspects of small-scale, sustainable, urban produce production. Additional tasks will include attending educational field trips and undergoing additional educational curriculum.

Qualifications

Applicants do not need to have a background in farming or gardening. We are looking for the following qualifications:

- Be 18-25 years old (exceptions made for highly motivated adults ages 26+)
- Strong interest in Grow Pittsburgh's mission and vision.
- Positive, outgoing, self-motivated and hardworking.
- Excellent planning and organization skills
- Quick learner
- Able to follow directions and work as a team
- Willingness to work in the greenhouse, outdoors in the garden, and indoors in an office setting
- Desire to interact and work with people on a daily basis
